- As a penetration tester, I need to be able to create fast note documents to document findings throughout the duration of a security assessment. (feature)
- As a penetration tester, I need to be able to insert screenshots into my note documents (feature)
- As a teacher, I need to create deadlines for projects and be able to pin documents to those deadlines (feature)
- As a penetration tester, I need to be able to group documents by phase of my assessment (feature)
- Make sure UI is simplistic to use and not complex (engineering improvement)
- Make sure files auto-save periodically to avoid loss of work (engineering improvement)
- As an Executive Developer, I need to create strict, guided notes on all my numerous deadlines and what projects they associate with.
- As an Executive Developer, I need to be able to have my notes and essential takeaways from specific meetings and specific topics panned out in a concise manner.
- As an Executive Developer, I need to store and manage documents on each select individual from within my development team.
- As an Executive Developer I need to pin all my notes and documentation in order of priority.
- Create general engineering mechanics so that users are able to make and save documents.